PIRATE COASTS: TERROR ON THE ASIAN SEAS

1x60' | Producer: Frederick Gillingham | Production year: 2025

South-East Asia's maritime shipping superhighways are essential arteries for global trade. Indispensable to the world economy, thousands of commercial vessels sail through these waters each year, transporting some of the world's most sought after goods, minerals and resources. But as economies grow more and more dependent on these maritime routes, crime syndicates, pirate gangs and terror groups who have roamed these lawless seas for centuries are a constant threat. This film aims to uncover the root causes of what drives modern Asian piracy, who is behind it and what is being done to stop it.
